Old Business:

Discussion for workshop locations- We learned that the space at the library space can only be used if the group or entity using it is a 501c3 non-profit. The status of the committee is unclear at this time. The status of the committee will be clarified and recorded. The classrooms/ meeting spaces at the Recreation center on Redwine road were discussed as possible locations for future workshops as well.

There was discussion of the media outreach for the scarecrow contest and future events and happenings. Takiya Claytor was asked to put together notes for a radio spot for 92.5 The Bear.

Eric Simonsen asked about county email addresses for new members. Anita Godbee responded that the county was in the process of obtaining new licensing for email addresses because the county had reached its limit for official emails.

New Business

Discussion of a sculpture/mural project that has been inquired upon. Questions were asked about how the call to artists wanted to be handled, what the process for choosing a site was, and application process, what the medium for the project would be and costs involved. The general consensus being that the committee would like to get back to being involved in physical projects as well as being part of county events.

There was also discussion of retooling the FCPAC website to be a little more vibrant and informative to the citizens of Fayette County as well as discussion of a survey to inquire of county residents as to what types of things they would like to see artistically in the county.
